

JUNE IN JANUARY

BROOKE D'ORSAY, WES BROWN, ANNA MARIE DELUIS & MARILU HENNER

June Fraser has envisioned her wedding day her entire life and even managed to plan every detail with her loving mother, Kathryn, before Kathryn's passing only a few years ago. Now an adult, June has met Alex Blackwell, a handsome attorney who hails from a very well-to-do family, with his intimidating and icy mother, Diana, at the helm. After an exciting New Year's Eve engagement, June can't wait to plan the June wedding she's always wanted to honor her mother's memory with and she starts using a portfolio of bridal magazine clippings she created with Kathryn as a guide. Then, when Alex suddenly receives a job offer in Cleveland and needs to move right away, he asks June if they can move the wedding date up to January—just three weeks away! In a panic, June and Alex accept Diana's offer to host the wedding at the Blackwell's gorgeous home, giving Diana the footing she needs to plan the event her way. June tries to salvage her special day and pull off the perfect summer wedding she's always wanted despite the chilly calendar change and Diana's cold calculating scheming.

Trailer

Directed by Written by Production credits

Mark Griffiths
J.B. White, Jean Abounader
Oliver De Caigny,
Johnson Production Group MMXIV June Productions Inc
90 Min | CANCON

Format

For more information or to purchase contact:

Johnson Production Group

Phone: 310-573-3700

Email: inquiries@johnsonproductiongroup.com