

POINSETTIAS FOR CHRISTMAS

BETHANY JOY LENZ, MARCUS ROSNER, JOHN SCHNEIDER & SHARON LAWRENCE

Urban planner Emma has long left her family's poinsettia farm for a life in the big city working alongside developer Aaron. When she gets an urgent call to come back to her hometown to help with a pending catastrophe right before Christmas, she heads to the farm. There she meets Jack who has been working on the farm with her father. Emma has to admit to herself that she's a little envious of the camaraderie that exists between the two of them as she and her father have clashed so often in past years. Soon she finds herself working with Jack to try and resolve the problem with the late blooming poinsettias and realizing they make a great team. It comes as a surprise to Emma when she meets up with her old school mate, Patty, who has is having great success with her gingerbread business ...and is dating Jack.

As Christmas approaches, Jack & Emma become closer and continue to enjoy each other's company on even more projects. Emma starts to realize that her big city goals are not really for her after all, and nor is Aaron. Meanwhile Jack & Patty see that their lives are heading down two very different paths.

Tension builds as Jack and Emma try and figure out their personal lives...and the whole family awaits the blooming of the poinsettias in time for the big Christmas parade.

Trailer

Directed by Written by Production credits
Format

Christie Will Wolf
Barbara Kymlicka
Timothy O. Johnson
90 Min | CANCON

For more information or to purchase contact:

Johnson Production Group

Phone: 310-573-3700

Email: inquiries@johnsonproductiongroup.com