

WINTER CASTLE

EMILIE ULLERUP & KEVIN MCGARRY

Jenny is thrilled when her sister Meg, decides to have a destination wedding at an ice hotel! Her sister is just as excited to set Jenny up with the best man, Craig, a widowed (and apparently) single dad who she claims is “perfect” for Jenny. When Jenny arrives at the ice hotel it’s even more magical than she had imagined. Jenny’s hopes of romance are quickly dashed when she is introduced to Craig’s “plus one”, Lana who arrives in faux furs and slightly orange from too much self-tanner.

Between their mutual excitement over their surroundings and their duties as bridesmaid and best man, Jenny and Craig find themselves constantly thrown together - making it hard for Jenny to ignore their obvious connection as they try everything offered from ice sculpting to dog sledding and even snow tubing.

With the wedding just a day away, the cold Lana has been fending off all week takes hold and she returns to California. Before she leaves, Craig has an honest moment with her and admits he doesn’t see a future with her.

Jenny assumes she has lost the man of her dreams but maybe she doesn’t know the whole story?
