

WITH LOVE, CHRISTMAS

EMILIE ULLERUP
& AARON O'CONNELL

Advertising execs Melanie Welsh and Donovan Goodwin disagree on a cellphone Christmas commercial they're pitching. He says his sleek design will win over the client but she knows it lacks holiday spirit. Christmas is definitely in Melanie's wheelhouse, but when she draws Donovan's name for Secret Santa, she's at a loss. He's even more minimalist than his advertising style. Determined to give Donovan and their commercial holiday joy, Melanie tries to get to know him via a Secret Santa email. She also takes him to a Christmas tree farm for a crash course in holiday cheer. As they work together, Donovan slowly opens up to Melanie, and she begins to fall for him. What she doesn't know is he's her Secret Santa too! As they create the perfect commercial, they also realize they might be perfect partners as well.
