One-Liner

When thieves rob the garage sale of suburban mom Marcia, a struggle ensues, and one of the thieves is killed. Unbeknownst to Marcia, the dead thief's sister returns, masquerading as a kind neighbor... with a vengeful plan to destroy Marcia's life.

Synopsis

Trudee and Pete are garage sale thieves: the sibling Bonnie and Clyde of the junk sale circuit. They go from garage sale to garage sale, ripping off upper middle class homes, making fast cash.

One day, they try to rob the garage sale of our lovely heroine, Marcia. While Trudee pretends to be a sweet neighbor talking to Marcia in the front yard, Pete sneaks upstairs to rob Marcia's jewelry and cash. But Marcia catches Pete in the act of burgling her. They struggle, and Pete tumbles down the stairs, breaking his neck and dying.

Trudee is crushed. With a long-running hatred for all "rich" people, she vows revenge against Marcia.

Unbeknownst to Marcia, Trudee returns to offer comfort after the traumatic experience, and soon the two women become close pals. Sharing a love for antiques, they go garage sale shopping together. But what Marcia doesn't know is that, bit by bit, Trudee sets out to destroy her life.....by wiping out her savings, forcing Marcia to start a long-running garage sale to make ends meet. Trudee's evil plan of revenge crescendoes when she sneaks into Marcia's neighbors house and kills the neighbor.

When police investigate, they find Marcia's daughter's fingerprints on the murder weapon, and Candice is framed for murder. With two mysterious deaths occurring in her house in less than a month, Candice becomes known as "The Garage Sale Killer," and is sent off to jail.

Now, it's up to Marcia to rise to the occasion and prove her daughter's innocence.

In a pulse-pounding finale, Marcia must use all of her wits to outsmart Trudee. Will Marcia be able to overpower the cunning Trudee? Or will Trudee achieve her mad wish of destroying everything precious in Marcia's life... as Candice rots in jail?
