At first, everything seems to be going great – Jack wines and dines Alyssa, taking her to extravagant meals, on romantic carriage rides through the city, and whisking her away to Europe on a private jet. But Alyssa's dream quickly turns into a nightmare when the volatile Prince refuses to let Alyssa leave his family's luxurious estate in the English countryside. As Alyssa desperately tries to escape, she soon finds a way to turn the tables on her not-so-perfect Prince.
